Your right to read

The first freedom

ROBERT B. DOWNS

Liberty and justice

in the world of books and learning

A unique compilation of the outstanding 20th century American and British writings on literary censorship. Prepared under the auspices of the Intellectual Freedom Committee of A.L.A., it is an anthology of ringing argument for the freedom to read.

Among the authors of the selections are such familiar names as Leo M. Alpert, William O. Douglas, Jerome Frank, Elmer Rice, John Lardner, John Haynes Holmes, John Mason Brown, Edward Weeks, Havelock Ellis, D. H. Lawrence, Paul Blanshard, Bernard DeVoto, Max Lerner, Aldous Huxley, Julian P. Boyd, Henry Steele Commager, George Bernard Shaw, John Galsworthy, Osbert Sitwell, Heywood Broun, H. L. Mencken, George Jean Nathan, William Saroyan, John Steinbeck, A. B. Guthrie, Jr., James T. Farrell, Margaret Cushman Banning, Archibald MacLeish, Benjamin Fine, Harold Rugg, Mark Van Doren, William Butler Yeats, Carl Sandburg, George Orwell, Elmer Davis and Curtis Bok.

The writings are divided into 12 areas covered by chapters entitled: We Have Been Here Before: A Historical Retrospect—The Issues at Stake—The Courts Look at Books—Giving Others the Courage of Our Convictions: Pressure Groups—Who or What Is Obscene—Political Subversion and Censorship—The Writers Fight Back—The Librarians Take a Stand—The Schools Under Attack—Censorship in Ireland—Books Under Dictators, Red and Black—The Broad View: Past, Present and Future.

The perceptive introductions to each chapter and selection unify the collection into a unique work on literary censorship and intellectual freedom.

Here is a cherished American right, the freedom to read, presented in a collection of outstanding writings and legal decisions. A permanent reminder, for every librarian, author, publisher, bookseller and reader, that we cannot take that right casually or indifferently.
